

ENG 20 1318 Rawson St
Looking very stylish in this year of 1920, this house was probably considered in good condition; it evidently had just undergone a fresh paint-job, but it was replaced in 1936 and picture on reverse side of this reference page will show what it looked like in 1936 alongside its new rival. The name of Rawson St was duly changed and became known as Concord Place. ENG 20 is located in a very high value district of large factories but is considered one of least busiest units in the City.

ENG 21 14 W. Taylor St
Organized on East 9 TH, then to S. Federal St and here where they became first Negro company in city. House vacated in 1946 because of condemned wooden floor and company moved to ENG 1 at 214 Lomax Place.
