Ladder Company No. 1 of Pullman volunteers which when picture was taken was located in Pullman fire station at Forrestville Avenue and 112th St. and on October, 1996 became Truck Company 27 of the Chicago Fire Dept altho volunteers stayed on to man company even though city paid commitments on house and equipment for some time. Forrestville Avenue in that era was known as Morse Avenue, and the building that located these units is still intact on southwest corner of Forrestville Avenue & 112th Street today as a filling station. Names were not available, but undoubtedly some members became paid members in Chicago ranks later on.
